Inclement Weather

In the event of inclement weather, Greenfield Public Schools will use the following communication methods to provide up to date information regarding cancellations / delays:

Connect-Ed Calls

Every family registered with Greenfield Public Schools will receive an automated telephone call (via Connect-Ed) with information regarding closings, delays, early dismissals, or other urgent weather and safety-related information.

Please make sure your phone number is up to date at your child’s school.

Local News Media (Television & Radio)

The school department updates Local Radio (WHA1 98.3 and 1240 AM and WHYN 560) and television stations (News 40, 22 News, Western Mass News, and NECN). They will be up to date with notifications about school delays and cancellations. Information can also be checked via their websites: <https://wggb.com> and <https://wwlp.com> and www.westernmassnews.com and www.necn.com

School District Webpage:

The District now provides updated emergency information on their webpage: www.gpsk12.org/gps-central/administration/weather-alerts.

Social Media

Real-time information regarding Cancellations, delays, and/or early releases is available on Twitter by following @Super_GPS. If you do not have a Twitter account, you can still view the updates by clicking here: www.gpsk12.org

 PLEASE NOTE: IN CASE OF A DELAY***

There is no AM Pre-School on days that there is a delay in Greenfield Public Schools.

1-HR DELAY: School will start 1 hour after the regularly scheduled start time at 9:30. Students may be dropped off after 8:30 if registered for Before School Program.

For bus routes, please add 1 hr to your regular pick up time. Please note, inclement weather may cause slight delays in bus schedules.

2-HR DELAY: School will start 2 hours after the regularly scheduled start time at 10:30.

Students may be dropped off after 9:30 if registered for Before School Program. For bus routes, please add 2 hrs to your regular pick-up time. Please note, inclement weather may cause slight delays in bus schedules.

School Lunch/Breakfast During Delays

On days that school is delayed, a grab and go breakfast will be served. School lunch on these days will be ravioli or sun butter and jelly sandwich. THANK YOU FOR YOUR UNDERSTANDING.
