Purpose

The Greenfield Public Schools maintain a computer network and computer systems to provide students, faculty and staff with access to a host of resources both internally within the district and on the Internet. These resources include, but are not limited to, desktop, laptop, and tablet computers, personal digital assistants, network and Internet access, e-mail, telephones, voicemail and facsimile machines (collectively to be called "Electronic Resources"). The Greenfield Public Schools network is established to support the educational mission and administrative operations of the individual schools.

Responsibilities

As a student or employee at the Greenfield Public Schools you may have access to Electronic Resources, including the network and Internet. The network is viewed as an extension of the public schools community and all expectations regarding standards of behavior as outlined in the Student, Employee or Employee Handbook apply to your actions while utilizing or accessing the network or other Electronic Resources. You are expected to use the Electronic Resources in a mature, ethical, and responsible manner. Personal use is allowed but Greenfield Public Schools reserves the right to limit your access. If you believe a website is blocked in error, please contact the Greenfield Public Schools Office of Information Technology to initiate a review. Access to the Greenfield Public Schools network is a privilege and not a right.
